

This Causes This, Recognizing Cause & Effect

In the space provided below identify specific interrelated events from the timeline. There should be a clear connection between the various events. The events you select should span decades not years. In each box, write the title of the event, a short synopsis of what happened, and the connection between this event and the events that followed and preceded it.

THIS....

CAUSED THIS...

So what? What is important to understand about this?